Example Project Name

A project site map should provide the names and locations of all pages that the website will need. This listing will provide valuable insight into the overall content strategy of the website.

- Homepage
- Academics
    - Degrees & Programs
        - MD Program
            - Apply
                - Application process
                - Link to - application
            - Additional information
        - PhD Program
            - Apply
                - Application process
                - Link to - application
            - Additional information
        - Masters of Science
            - Apply
                - Application process
                - Link to - application
            - Additional information
    - Additional Programs
        - Graduate Education
            - Research Areas
            - Additional information
- Students
    - Incoming students
        - Visiting the campus
        - Directions
        - Housing
        - Welcome weekend
        - Events
        - Student testimonials
        - Link to - Financial aid
        - Link to - Curriculum
    - Current students
        - Link to - Financial aid
        - Link to - Curriculum

        - News
        - Events
    - Financial aid
    - Curriculum
        - Curriculum item
        - Curriculum item
        - Curriculum item
    - Calendar of events
        - Calendar event
    - Student organizations
        - Student organization
        - Student organization
        - Student organization
    - Student testimonials
        - Student testimonial
        - Student testimonial
        - Student testimonial
    - Policies
        - Academic committee
        - Academic policy
        - Code of conduct
        - Admission requirements
            - Requirement
            - Requirement
            - Requirement